Hei ōranga mo tātou katoa

Haumi ē! Hui ē! Taiki ē!

Through embracing our rightful responsibilities
(Rangatiratanga)

In accepting the rights of each other (Whakaritenga)

Through the duty we have to care for those things that we hold as precious(Kaitiakitanga)

In the spirit of co-operation (Kotahitanga)

With respect and good heartedness (Te ngakau mahaki)

And to be united in these goals, we will be sustained

Let us work together to achieve this.

Narrative approach

- ▶ Narratives are about values and experiences of teaching and learning
- ▶ Narrative inquiry as a research approach today is reshaping qualitative inquiry in the academic world. There is no single explanation of narrative inquiry. It has different meanings for different disciplines. Simply stated narrative inquiry is a way of understanding experience. They are stories that are lived and told (Richards, 2011, Clandinin & Connally, 2000).

Ngākau Māhaki – Respect

Rabindranath Tagore

- ▶ The highest education is that which does not merely give us information but makes our life in harmony with all existence.
